

CHAPTER 8

TEMPORARY STORAGE OF GOODS

Article 50 (Places of Temporary Storage)

- (1) From the moment of acceptance of the summary declaration and until the time of acceptance of the customs declaration referred to in Article 55 of this Law, such goods shall be considered as “goods in temporary storage”. Goods in temporary storage shall be stored in customs areas or any other place determined by Customs
- (2) Good referred to in paragraph (1) shall not be subject to any form of handling. The provisions of article 47 of this law and such forms of handling as are designed to ensure their preservation in the original state ( without modifying their appearance or technical characteristics) shall be an exception to this rule.
- (3) The customs authorities may require the owner of the goods or his agent to provide security with a view to ensuring payment of any customs debt and fulfillment of his obligations provided for by this law

Article 51 (Removing Goods from Temporary Storage)

- (1) If the summary declaration is not submitted within the periods determined in accordance with Article 48, the Director General of Customs shall, taking into account Article 54(3), without delay take all measures necessary, including, after providing notice to person responsible for goods, for the purpose of sale of, or assigning a customs designation for, the goods left at customs, in accordance with the relevant procedure.
- (2) Customs may, at the expense of the owner of the goods, transfer the goods mentioned in paragraph 1 to a place which is under customs supervision, and keep them there until a determination is made concerning the sale or customs designation of the goods.

Article 52 (Non-allowed Goods )

- (1) Customs authorities who believe that the goods are smuggled according to the provisions of this law shall upon final decision by a responsible authority, take measures for sale or other authorized action with respect to the goods.

- (2) Goods that are prohibited in accordance with 53(2) shall be seized by customs authorities, and treated in accordance with Paragraph. 1

- (3) Customs, upon request of the holder of a trademark or patent or other proprietary rights in accordance with the relevant procedures, may prohibit the release into free circulation, and the exportation of goods, provided that they are recognized in accordance with applicable Law to be counterfeited or pirated goods.